DISCOVERY SCHOLARSHIP

Since 1984 this amazing Marin-based program has provided ongoing, weekly private music lessons to 220+ low-income children. Former Discovery students have graduated from colleges and universities across the United States, including Duke, UCLA, Spitzer, Northwestern, UC Davis, UC Berkeley, the Culinary Institute of America at Hyde Park (NY), among others.

Discovery students have entered the economy in many fields including health and medical services, culinary research, business (corporate, entrepreneurial and self-owned), education, music performance, film production & composition, government service and the armed forces, among others. For example, the three young people shown on the left are Discovery graduates who now own and operate successful photography, manufacturing and music teaching businesses.
